Revamp Traffic in Vicinity Of Iowa Street, Nameoki Road

lowa Street, Nameoki Road

Some change is needed in the present St.
Clair avenue-lowa street intersection with Nameoki road. Extra vehicles are being needlessly forced onto Cranite City's bussiest arteries. For the contrast to the goal of expediting traffic.

It will be recalled that two factors dictated the designation of lowa as one-way northbound—this fitted into the overall one-way street revision developed by the city council, and the width of lowa at Nameoki road is insufficient for two-way traffic. These were valid reasons. Two additional points deserve consideration at the contrast of the co hazards. 2. The necessity to drive around an extra block is unavoidable when there is a one-way pattern. This is acceptable in itself, but does more harm than good when one of the neighboring streets, Madison avenue, is such a major actery. Mail Boxes Spotty For Repainting

For Repainting

That discoloration on Granite City mail boxes, which in some instances ob Mail' does not mean the boxes have been taken out of use, postal officials explained today after receiving inquiries about whether or not they may be used to Arthur Metaelf, assistant postmaster, pointed out that the discoloration is merely a "spotting" process as stated by a "spotting" process as stated preliminary to painting. All collection boxes are treetive a ground coat and then will be repainted in finish colors of red and blue with white Metaelf and some callers.

Metcalf said some callers believed the condition was due to vandalism. But, he noted, there is a $1000 fine or three years imprison-ment as penalty for tam-pering with a mail box.
